2.4. Transitional

Everything done under this Constitution continues to have the same operation and effect after the adoption of any successor Constitution as if properly done under that Constitution.

3. Vision, Mission, Objects and Powers of the Association

3.1. Vision

To have “an environmentally clean, balanced ecology supporting a prosperous community in which people respect each other's use of the catchment and waterways”

3.2. Our Mission

Enabling and engaging the community to protect, sustain and enhance the Torbay Catchment’s natural assets for current and future generations.

3.3. Our Objects

The primary Objects of this Association are to:

- (a) To foster initiatives within urban and rural communities to increase community engagement and education in conservation and environmental issues leading to sustainable catchment management;
- (b) To implement and encourage interpretation, education and sustainable recreation in natural areas within the catchment. Our proximity to National Parks and Reserves; the Torbay Rail Trail; recreational angling and canoeing in catchment water bodies are examples of uses of our catchment that promote healthy physical activity and can raise the profile of the Torbay Catchment to the wider community;
- (c) To co-ordinate projects and initiate both accredited and information-based training that contribute to sustainable and productive farming and ecological systems, including but not limited to:
 - i. Protection and management of water bodies by minimising nutrient flows, and surface water management to reduce erosion and sedimentation;
 - ii. Controlling the spread of, and reducing the population of invasive species;
 - iii. Reducing greenhouse gases and increasing soil carbon storage;
 - iv. Enhancing, rehabilitating and restoring the natural environment;
 - v. Building connectivity and resilience within the landscape;
 - vi. Protecting high-value areas on private and public land;
 - vii. Improving the equilibrium between agricultural, industrial, urban and environmental users of the catchment; and
 - viii. Protection of native flora and fauna to improve biodiversity conservation.
- (d) Ensuring the sustainable & long-term operation of the Torbay Catchment Group Inc.
- (e) To build relationships, engage and co-operate with other like-minded organisations and educational institutions and any other organisation to further the Objects of the Torbay Catchment Group.

3.4. Powers

The Association has all the powers of an incorporated association under the Act.

The Association may only use its powers to do:

- (a) Anything which it considers will advance or achieve the Objects; and
- (b) All other things that are incidental to carrying out the Objects.

4. Not for Profit

- (a) All property and income of the Association must be applied solely towards promoting the Objects, and no part of the Association's property or income may be paid or otherwise distributed, directly or indirectly to any Member, except in good faith in promoting the Objects.
- (b) A payment may be made (directly or indirectly) to a Member out of the funds of the Association only if it is authorised under clause 4(c).
- (c) A payment to a Member out of the funds of the Association is authorised if it is:
 - i. a payment in good faith to that Member of reasonable remuneration for services provided to the Association; or reasonable compensation for goods supplied to the Association in the ordinary course of business;
 - ii. payment on an indemnity or insurance policy in favour of any Member against any losses, liabilities, damages, costs, charges or expenses incurred by the Member in providing paid or unpaid services to the Association;
 - iii. the payment of interest on money borrowed from a Member by the Association, at a rate not exceeding the cash rate published from time to time by the Reserve Bank of Australia;
 - iv. the payment of reasonable rent to the Member for any premises leased by the Member to the Association; or
 - v. the reimbursement of reasonable expenses properly incurred by a Member on behalf of the Association;

5. Membership of the Association

5.1. Number of Members

- (a) The minimum number of Members of the Association is 6;

 - ii. The applicant's details are entered in the Register in accordance with clause 7.1.

5.6. Membership Fees

- (a) Membership Fees may consist of any fees determined by the Board from time-to-time for each class of membership, based upon a financial year (July – June) term;
- (b) The Board may:
 - i. Set different Membership Fees for different Members, including (without limitation) reduced fees for Members who are students, pensioners, or otherwise financially disadvantaged; and
 - ii. In its absolute discretion may waive all or part of a Membership Fee payable by any Member;
- (c) Membership Fees are payable in advance by the date directed by the Board from time-to-time;
- (d) If any amount owing under this clause 5.6 remains unpaid for a period of 60 days after it falls due, the Secretary or Treasurer, will send a notice to the Member requiring payment of the outstanding amount within 14 days of the date of the notice;
- (e) If the amount is not paid within this 14-day period then the Member will at the end of the period automatically and, without further notice, cease to be a Member;
- (f) The Board may, in its absolute discretion, reinstate the Member on payment of all arrears of amounts owing.

5.7. Liability of Members

- (a) The Liability of Members is limited to payment of their applicable Membership Fees in accordance with clause 5.6;
- (b) A Member is not liable, by reason of their membership, for the liabilities of the Association or the cost of winding up the Association.

5.8. No Transfer of Membership

A right, privilege or obligation of a person by reason of their membership:

- (a) Is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person; and
- (b) Terminates upon the cessation of membership.

6. Ceasing to be a Member

6.1. When a Member Ceases to be a Member

A Member will cease to be a Member:

- (a) If the Member resigns by notice in writing to the Secretary, on the date that the notice is received by the Secretary, or any later date specified in the notice;
- (b) If their membership is revoked in accordance with clause 6.2;
- (c) Where the Member is an individual, if the Member dies; or
- (d) Where the Member is an organisation, if it is wound up, dissolved, deregistered or otherwise ceases to be an organisation.

6.2. Revocation of Membership

(a) Subject to this clause 6.2, the Board may at a Board meeting resolve to revoke a Member's membership if in its opinion:

- i. The Member's status or conduct is detrimental to the interests of the Association, including (without limitation) if the Member has brought the Association into disrepute;
 - ii. The Member has failed to comply with this Constitution or any By-Laws of the Association; or
 - iii. The Member no longer meets the applicable criteria for membership in clause 5.4.
- (b) At least 21 days before the Board meeting referred to in clause 6.2(a)(Revocation Meeting), the Secretary must give written notice to the Member:
- i. Of the proposed revocation of membership and the reasons for that proposed revocation;
 - ii. Of the date, time and place of the Revocation Meeting;
 - iii. Informing the Member that the Member or the Member's Representative (if applicable) may attend the Revocation Meeting and will be given a full and fair opportunity to make oral and written submissions to the Board.
- (c) At the Revocation Meeting, the Board must:
- i. Give the Member or its Representative a full and fair opportunity to make oral submissions and must give reasonable consideration to any written submissions;
 - ii. Determine whether the Member's Membership should be revoked.

6.3. Consequences of Ceasing to be a Member

(a) Any person ceasing to be a Member:

- i. Will have its name removed from the Register;

- ii. Is not entitled to any refund (or part refund) of any Membership Fee paid, unless the Board resolves otherwise; and
 - iii. Will remain liable for and must pay to the Association all fees and any other amounts which were due to the Association at the date they cease to be a Member.
- (b) The Secretary or Treasurer must keep a record, for at least 1 year after a person ceases to be a Member, of:
- i. The date on which the person ceased to be a Member; and
 - ii. The reason why the person ceased to be a Member.

7. Register of Members

7.1. Maintaining the Register of Members

- (a) The Secretary (or any other person authorised by the Board) must keep and maintain a Register at the Association's premises or any other suitable place in accordance with section 53 of the Act, containing:
- i. The name & residential, postal or email address of each Member;
 - ii. The class of membership of each Member (if applicable);
 - iii. The date on which each Member's name was entered into the Register; and
 - iv. The name and date of appointment of each Representative.
- (b) Any change in the membership of the Association must be recorded in the Register within 28 days.

7.2. Inspecting and Copying the Membership Register

- (a) The Membership Register is available for inspection, free of charge, by any current Member upon written request to the Board.
- (b) A Member may make a copy of entries in the Membership Register, after formally seeking approval, from the Board, to undertake this action.
- (c) A Member may apply, in writing, to the Board for a copy of the Register. The Board may in its discretion require the Member to provide a "Statutory Declaration" setting out the purpose of the request and declaring that the purpose is connected with the affairs of the Association.
- (d) The Board in its discretion may charge a reasonable fee for providing a copy of the Register.
- (e) A Member must not use or disclose any information in the Register for any purpose other than a purpose that:
- i. Is directly connected with the affairs of the Association; or

- ii. Relates to the administration of the Act.

8. General Meetings

8.1. Annual General Meetings

- (a) The Association must hold an Annual General Meeting once in each calendar year and no later than 6 months after the end of each Financial Year, except where the Commissioner has allowed for a longer period under the Act.
- (b) The Board must determine the place, date and time of the Annual General Meeting.

8.2. Business at Annual General Meeting

Even if these items are not set out in the notice of meeting, the business of an Annual General Meeting may include:

- (a) Reviewing the Association's activities and finances since the last preceding Annual General Meeting;
- (b) Confirming the Minutes of the last preceding Annual General Meeting and of any other General Meeting held since the last preceding Annual General Meeting;
- (c) Receiving and Considering:
 - i. The Board's Annual Report on the Association's activities during the preceding Financial Year;
 - ii. If the Association is a Tier 1 Association, the Financial Statements of the Association for the preceding Financial Year presented under Part 5 of the Act;
 - iii. If the Association is a Tier 2 Association or a Tier 3 Association, the Financial Report of the Association for the preceding Financial Year presented under Part 5 of the Act; and
 - iv. If required to be presented for consideration under Part 5 of the Act, a copy of the review report or the auditor's report on the Financial Statements or Financial Report (as applicable);
- (d) Electing Board Members;
- (e) Appointing an auditor or reviewer and fixing their remuneration (where relevant); and
- (f) Transacting any other business which under this Constitution or the Act may properly be brought before the meeting.

8.3. Special General Meetings

- (a) The Board may at any time convene a General Meeting of the Members, or of any class of Members.
- (b) The Board must convene a General Meeting of Members if it receives a request to do so and the following requirements are met:
 - i. The request is made with at least 20% Members with the ability to cast votes at a General Meeting.

- ii. The request is in writing, signed by all the Members making the request, and states the business to be conducted at the General Meeting; and
 - iii. The request is lodged with the Secretary or the Chairperson in the absence of the Secretary.
- (c) On receipt of a request from Members under clause 8.3(b), the Board must:
- i. Give all Members 21 days' notice of the General Meeting;
 - ii. Hold the General Meeting within 2 months of the date of the request.
- (d) Subject to the Act, the Board may cancel or postpone any General Meeting or change its venue by giving notice to all persons to whom the notice of the original meeting was given, but may not cancel a General Meeting which was called or requested by Members, without the prior written consent of those Members.

8.4. Failure of Board to hold a General Meeting requested by Members

- (a) If the Board fails to convene a General Meeting within the time period specified in clause 8.3(c), the Members who made the request may call and arrange to hold a General Meeting.
- (b) A General Meeting called under clause 8.4(a) must be held within 3 months after the date of the original request under clause 8.3(b) and may only consider the business stated in the original request.
- (c) As far as reasonably practicable, a General Meeting under this clause 8.4 must be called and held in the same way in which General Meetings of the Association are called.
- (d) The Association must bear the reasonable expenses of calling and holding a General Meeting under this clause 8.4.

8.5. Notice of General Meetings

- (a) Notice of every General Meeting must be given in the manner authorised by clause 17.1 to every Member and Board Member; and to any reviewer or auditor of the Association.
- (b) No other person is entitled to receive notice of a General Meeting, except any person authorised by the Board.
- (c) Notice of General Meetings (including Annual General Meetings) must be provided to Members at least 21 days before any General Meeting.

8.6. Content of Notice of General Meetings

The notice of General Meeting must:

- (a) Specify the place, date and time for the General Meeting (and, if the meeting is to be held in two or more places in accordance with clause 8.8, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
- (b) State the general nature of the business to be transacted at the General Meeting;
- (c) If a Special Resolution is to be proposed at the General Meeting, set out an intention to propose the Special Resolution & state the resolution; and

- (d) Contain a statement of each Member's right to appoint a natural person who is also a Member as their proxy.

8.7. Failure to Give Notice

Any resolution passed at a General Meeting is not invalidated by:

- (a) The accidental omission to give Notice of a General Meeting to any Member or non-receipt of that notice by a Member; or
- (b) The accidental omission to send out the instrument of proxy to a person entitled to receive notice or non-receipt of that instrument by a Member.

8.8. Use of Technology

- (a) The Association may hold a General Meeting (including an Annual General Meeting) at 2 or more venues using any technology that gives Members a reasonable opportunity to participate, provided that arrangements are made at each venue for the recording of all votes cast;
- (b) The General Meeting is taken to be held where the Chairperson of the General Meeting conducts the General Meeting.
- (c) All proceedings conducted in accordance with this clause 8.8 are as valid as if conducted at a single gathering of a quorum of those entitled to be present.

8.9. Quorum

- (a) No business may be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum of Members are Present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business;
- (b) Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, a quorum constitutes 5 Members are present and eligible to vote at the General Meeting.

8.10. If a Quorum not Present

If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the General Meeting in the notice:

- (a) Where the meeting is convened on the requisition of Members, the meeting must be automatically dissolved; or
- (b) In any other case:
 - i. The meeting stands adjourned to a day and at a time and place as the Board decides or, if no decision is made by the Board, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and
 - ii. If no quorum is present at the resumed meeting within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, provided at least 2 Members eligible to vote are Present at the resumed meeting, they will be taken to constitute a quorum.

8.11. Adjournments

- (a) The Chairperson may, and must if directed to do so by the General Meeting, adjourn a General Meeting from time to time and from place to place.

- (b) Only business left unfinished at a meeting which was adjourned may be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.
- (c) A resolution passed at a meeting resumed after an adjournment is passed on the day it was in fact passed.
- (d) When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of the original meeting. In all other cases, it is not necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting.

9. Voting at General Meetings

9.1. Voting Rights

- (a) At General Meetings, each Member entitled to attend and vote in accordance with this Constitution:
 - i. Has one vote on each resolution; and
 - ii. May attend and vote in person or by proxy, or attorney.
- (b) A Member may appoint a natural person who is also a Member as their proxy to attend and vote at General Meetings on behalf of the Member.

9.2. Members' Resolutions

- (a) A Resolution put to the vote at a General Meeting must be decided by a majority of votes cast by the Members Present at the General Meeting, except where it is required by this Constitution or otherwise by law that the Resolution be a Special Resolution.
- (b) A Resolution put to the vote at a General Meeting must be decided in the manner determined by the Chairperson, which may be on a show of hands or a Poll.
- (c) Any 3 Members Present at a General Meeting may demand a Poll.
- (d) A Poll is to be taken in the manner and at the time the Chairperson directs, except that any Poll demanded on the election of a Chairperson or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. The Chairperson may determine the method of recording votes cast, including proxy votes, in any written form, which may be a written record of votes cast. Individual voting papers are not mandatory to record votes cast on a Poll.
- (e) Before a vote is taken, the Chairperson must inform the General Meeting whether any proxy votes have been received and how the proxy votes are to be cast on the resolution.
- (f) In the case of an equality of votes on a show of hands or on a Poll, the Chairperson of the relevant General Meeting has a casting vote in addition to the Chairperson's deliberative vote (if any).
- (g) A declaration by the Chairperson that a Resolution has on a show of hands or on a Poll been carried or lost and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting is conclusive evidence of that fact.

- (h) Neither the Chairperson nor the Minutes of the Meeting need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against the resolution.

9.3. Objection to Qualification to Vote

- (a) An objection to a person's right to vote at a General Meeting:
 - i. May only be raised at the General Meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered; and
 - ii. Must be determined by the Chairperson of the meeting, whose decision is final.
- (b) A vote allowed after an objection is valid for all purposes.

9.4. Direct Voting

- (a) The Board may determine that, at any General Meeting or class meeting, a Member who is entitled to attend and vote on a resolution at that meeting is entitled to vote by direct vote in respect of that resolution. A direct vote includes a vote delivered to the Association by post or any other means approved by the Board, subject to compliance with the Act.
- (b) Where clause 9.4(a) applies, the notice of meeting must indicate that direct voting is available at the relevant meeting or on particular resolutions.
- (c) The Board may prescribe procedures in relation to direct voting, including (without limitation):
 - i. Specifying the form, method and timing of casting a direct vote at a meeting for the vote to be valid; and
 - ii. The circumstances in which a direct vote may be withdrawn by the Member or deemed withdrawn.

9.5. Votes Counted in Error

If any vote is counted which ought not to have been counted or might have been rejected, the error will not invalidate the resolution unless the error is:

- (a) Detected at the same General Meeting; and
- (b) Of sufficient magnitude, in the opinion of the Chairperson, as to invalidate the resolution.

10. Minutes

- (a) The Board must cause Minutes to be made of:
 - i. Proceedings and Resolutions of General Meetings of the Members and Resolutions passed by Members without a meeting;
 - ii. all appointments of Board Members; and
 - iii. Proceedings and Resolutions of Board meetings and Resolutions passed by the Board without a meeting, and retain the Minutes in a Minute record that is backed up and accessible by two people.
- (b) Minutes created on digital platforms, such as email may take many forms. The final minutes of such platforms must include the full proposal and the final acceptance or rejection of each member of the board in a record backed up & accessible by two people & retained in the official Minutes file.

- (c) The Association must ensure that Minutes are duly signed within a reasonable time after the date of the meeting or of the Resolution being passed by:
 - i. the Chairperson of the meeting;
 - ii. the Chairperson of the next meeting; or
 - iii. In the case of a Resolution without a meeting, a Board Member.

13.2. Term of Office and Re-Appointment or Re-Election

- (a) The term of office of a Board Member (Term):
- i. begins, as applicable, when the Board Member is:
 - (A) elected at an Annual General Meeting in accordance with clause 13.3(c), or
 - (B) appointed to fill a casual vacancy in accordance with clause 14.2, and
 - ii. Ends at the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting after the Board Member's election or appointment, or otherwise under clause 14.1.
- (b) Subject to the Act, the Association in a General Meeting may by resolution remove a Board Member from the Board.

13.3. Nomination for the Board

- (a) Any Member who wishes to stand for election to the Board must send a nomination to the Secretary at least 14 days before the Annual General Meeting.
- (b) A nomination under clause 13.3(a) must be in writing in such form as is approved by the Board from time to time and signed by the Member.
- (c) In the nomination form the Member must certify that they are eligible to be elected to the Board in accordance with clause 13.1. The Board may reject a nomination if in its reasonable opinion, the Member is not eligible for election to the Board.

13.4. Election of Board Members

- (a) At the Annual General Meeting, each Board Member's term of office ends and all vacancies on the Board are open for election;
- (b) A retiring Board Member is eligible for re-election without needing to give any prior notice of an intention to submit for re-election and holds office as a Board Member until the end of the meeting at which the Board Member retires;
- (c) There must be a separate election for each vacancy on the Board;
- (d) If there is no nomination for any position on the Board under Clause 13.3, the Chairperson may call for nominations from the Members Present at the Annual General Meeting;
- (e) If only one Member has nominated for any Board position, the Chairperson must declare that Member elected to the position;
- (f) If more than one Member has nominated for a Board position, the Members Present must vote to elect the Board Member, in accordance with any procedures set by the Board. A Member who has nominated for a Board position may vote for himself or herself;
- (g) Any person elected to the Board who has not completed a nomination in accordance with clause 13.2 must within 14 days confirm in writing to the Board their eligibility under 13.1(b). If the person is not eligible, their appointment to the Board is deemed not to have taken place.

13.5. Board Register

- (a) The Secretary (or any person authorised by the Board) must keep and maintain a Board Register in accordance with section 58 of the Act, including:
 - i. The name; and
 - ii. At least one of the residential address, business address, post office box address or email address, for each person identified in clause 13.5 (b).
- (b) Clause 13.5 (a) applies to:
 - i. Each Board Member;
 - ii. Any other person who holds any office in the Association;

- iii. Every person who is authorised to use the seal of the Association (if any); and
- iv. Any person who is appointed or who acts as trustee on behalf of the Association.

13.6. Inspecting and Copying the Board Register

- (a) The Board Register is available for inspection free of charge by any Member upon written request to the Secretary;
- (b) A Member may make a copy of entries in the Board Register or take an extract but a Member does not have the right to remove the Board Register for that purpose;
- (c) A Member must not use or disclose any information in the Board Register for any purpose other than a purpose that:
 - i. Is directly connected with the affairs of the Association; or
 - ii. Relates to the administration of the Act.

14. Resignation and Removal from Office

14.1. Vacancy on the Board

A Board Member's Term ends and that office becomes vacant if the Board Member:

- (a) Dies, or resigns by notice in writing delivered to the Secretary or, if the Board Member is the Secretary, to the Chairperson;
- (b) Is or becomes ineligible to act as a Board Member under clause 13.1;
- (c) Becomes physically or mentally incapable of performing the Board Member's duties and the Board resolves that the Board Member's office be vacated for that reason;
- (d) Is absent from more than:
 - i. 3 consecutive Board meetings without leave of absence granted from the Board; or
 - ii. 3 Board meetings in the same Financial Year without tendering an apology to the relevant Chairperson of each meeting, which apology is accepted by the Chairperson, and the Board determines that the Board Member's office be vacated for that reason;
- (e) Engages in conduct detrimental to the interests of the Association including (without limitation) if the Board Member has brought the Association into disrepute and the Board resolves that the Board Member's office be vacated for that reason;
- (f) Ceases to be a Member; or
- (g) Is the subject of a "Resolution" passed by Members terminating the Board Member's appointment as a Board Member.

14.2. Filling Casual Vacancies

- (a) The Board may appoint a Member (who is eligible under clause 13.1) at any time to fill a Board position:
 - i. That has become vacant under clause 14.1; or
 - ii. That was not filled in accordance with clause 13.4.
- (b) A Board Member appointed under clause 14.2(a) holds office until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting, and is eligible for election or appointment to the Board in accordance with this Constitution.

14.3. Return of Books and Records

- (a) As soon as practicable after a Board Member's term of office ends, that person (or if the Board Member has died, their personal representative) must deliver to the Board all books, records and documents of the Association in the Board Member's possession, whether in hard copy or electronic format.
- (b) The Board may require the outgoing Board Member to certify in writing that, having complied with clause 14.3(a), the Board Member has destroyed all remaining electronic copies of books, records and documents of the Association.

15. Board Proceedings

15.1. Calling and holding Board Meetings

- (a) The Board must meet as often as required to discharge its duties, with a gap of no more than three (3) months between each Board meeting;
- (b) The Chairperson may call a Board meeting by giving reasonable notice to each Board Member;
- (c) The Secretary (or any Board Member in the Secretary's absence) must call a Board meeting when requested to do so by any two (2) Board Members;
- (d) The Board may adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit.

15.2. Meetings by Telecommunications

Without limiting the Board's power to regulate its meetings as it thinks fit, the Board may hold a valid meeting using any medium by which each of the Board Members can simultaneously hear all the other participants (including telephone, video conferencing or any other means of instant communication), and in that case:

- (a) The participating Board Members are taken to be present at the meeting for the purposes of this Constitution;
- (b) The meeting is taken to be held where the Chairperson of the meeting is;
- (c) If a failure in communications prevents any Board Member present at the meeting from participating in the meeting, then the meeting will be suspended until communications are restored, unless communications cannot be restored within 15 minutes, in which case the meeting will be deemed to have terminated; and

- (d) All proceedings of the Board conducted in accordance with this clause 15.2 are as valid and effective as if conducted at a meeting at which all of the Board Members were present in person.

15.3. Quorum

- (a) At a Board meeting, the number of Board Members whose presence is necessary to constitute a quorum is three (3).
- (b) If any office on the Board becomes vacant, the remaining Board Members may act but, if the total number of remaining Board Members is not sufficient to constitute a quorum at a Board meeting, the Board Members may act only for the purpose of:
 - i. Approving new Member applications for the purpose of appointing those new Members as additional Board Members;
 - ii. Increasing the number of Board Members to a number sufficient to constitute a quorum; or
 - iii. Convening a General Meeting.

15.4. Guests at Board Meetings

- (a) The Board may invite a Member or any other person who is not a Board Member to attend a Board meeting or any part thereof.
- (b) A person invited to attend a Board meeting under clause 15.4 (a) has no right to vote and no right to do any of the following without the Board's consent:
 - i. Receive any agendas, notices or papers relating to the Board meeting; and
 - ii. Comment on any matters discussed at the Board meeting.

15.5. Board Resolutions

- (a) Subject to this Constitution, a resolution of the Board must be passed by a majority of the votes of Board Members present and entitled to vote on the resolution;
- (b) Subject to clause 15.5 (c), each Board Member has one vote on any resolution on which the Board Member is entitled to vote;
- (c) In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson has a second or casting vote in addition to the Chairperson's deliberative vote (if any).

15.6. Written Board Resolutions

- (a) The Board may pass a resolution without a Board Meeting being held if a majority of the Board Members entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document;
- (b) Identical copies of the document may be distributed for signing by different Board Members and taken together will constitute the same document;
- (c) A Board Member may send their statement by letter, fax, email or any means approved by the Board signed with their name and indicating their approval; and
- (d) The resolution is passed when the last Board Member signs the document.

15.7. By-Laws

- (a) The Board has the power to make by-laws regulating the establishment, organisation and conduct of the Association, provided such by-laws are not inconsistent with this Constitution or the Act.
- (b) All by-laws made and in force from time to time are binding on the Members.

15.8. Acts valid despite defective appointment

Subject to the Act, any act done at any Board meeting by any person acting as a Board Member, even if it is later discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or election of any such Board Member or that the Board member was not eligible for election under Clause 13.1, is valid as if the Board Member had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Board Member.

16. Execution of Documents

16.1. Execution generally

- (a) The Association may validly execute a document (including a deed) if the document is signed by a Board Member and countersigned by another Board Member or another person appointed by the Board to countersign that document or a class of documents in which that document is included.
- (b) Clause 16.1(a) does not limit the Board's ability to authorise a person who is not a Board Member to execute a document for and on behalf of the Association.

16.2. Common Seal

- (a) The Association need not have or use a common seal to execute documents or deeds;
- (b) Where the Association has a Common Seal, it must only be used with the authority of the Board. The Secretary or any other Board Member authorised by the Board must ensure the safe custody of the seal; and
- (c) The Secretary must record in a seal register details of every document to which the common seal of the Authority is fixed.

17. Notices

17.1. How notice to be given

All notices, including notices of meeting and ballot papers, may be given by the Association to any Member by:

- (a) Serving it on the Member personally;
- (b) Sending it by post to the Member's nominated address;
- (c) Sending it by email to an email address nominated by the Member, or by any other electronic means nominated by the Member; (except in the case of ballot papers for a written ballot); or
- (d) Giving it by any other means permitted or contemplated by the Act.

17.2. When Notice is Given

A notice is deemed to be given by the Association and received by the Member:

- (a) If delivered in person, when delivered to the Member;
- (b) If posted, on the day after the date of posting to the Member, whether delivered or not;
- (c) If sent by facsimile transmission, on the day after the date of its transmission; or
- (d) If sent by email or other electronic means, on the day after the date of its transmission, but if the delivery or receipt is on a day which is not a Business Day or is after 4.00 pm (addressee's time), it is deemed to have been received at 9.00 am (addressee's time) on the next Business Day.

17.3. No notice of no valid address

If:

- (a) Any Member has not provided to the Association an address for registration in the Register; or
- (b) The Association believes that a Member is not known at the address registered in the Register,

Unless and until the Member provides a valid address to the Association, all notices to be sent to that Member are taken to be given to the Member if the notice is displayed at the Association's address or website for 48 hours, and are taken to be served at the commencement of that period.

18. Funds and Accounts

18.1. Control of funds

- (a) Subject to clause 18.9, the funds of the Association must be kept in an account or accounts in the name of the Association in a financial institution determined by the Board;
- (b) The Board is responsible for expenditure of the funds of the Association and may authorise any other person or persons to expend the funds of the Association within specified limits, and subject to appropriate supervision;
- (c) The funds of the Association are to be used to do:
 - i. Anything which it considers will advance or achieve the Objects; and
 - ii. All other things that are incidental to carrying out the Objects.

19. Resolving disputes

19.1 Application of disputes procedure

The disputes procedure set out in this clause applies to disputes under or relating to this Constitution between:

- (a) A Member and another Member or Members; and
- (b) A Member or Members and the Association.

19.2 Disputes procedure

- (a) The parties to the dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute (in person or by telephone, email, or any other means of communication) within 14 days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties. In the case of a dispute involving the Association, the Chairperson (or any Board Member appointed by the Chairperson) will represent the Association.
- (b) If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute within the 14-day period specified in clause (a), either party may initiate the dispute resolution procedure by giving a written notice to the Secretary identifying the parties to the dispute and the subject of the dispute.

- (c) Within 21 days of receipt of a notice under clause (b), a Board meeting must be convened to determine the dispute.
- (d) The Secretary must give the parties to the dispute at least 7 days' prior written notice of the Board meeting, informing them that they may attend the meeting (in person or via telephone, video conferencing or any other available means of instant communication) and make oral or written submissions (or both).
- (e) At the Board meeting, the Board must:
 - i. Give each party to the dispute a full and fair opportunity to make oral or written submissions and must give reasonable consideration to any submissions; and
 - ii. Determine the dispute.
- (f) Written notice of the Board's decision regarding the dispute must be given to all parties to the dispute within 7 days after the Board meeting;
- (g) If any party to the dispute is not satisfied with the Board's decision, the Board may refer the matter to an external dispute resolution procedure in accordance with by-laws made by the Board for that purpose.

20. Affiliation & membership of other similar organisations

The Board may determine that the Association will affiliate with or become a member of, or accept affiliation with or membership of, any organisation (including any regional or international association) having similar or like interests to the Association.

21. Winding-up, cancellation and distribution of surplus property

21.1. Winding up the Association

- (a) For the purposes of this clause "Surplus Property" has the meaning given in section 3 of the Act.
- (b) Subject to the Act, the Association may cease its activities and be wound up or cancelled in accordance with a Special Resolution.
- (c) Subject to clause 21.2, if upon the winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains any Surplus Property, such property will not be paid to or distributed among the Members but will be given or transferred to one or more organisations listed in section 24(1) of the Act with objects similar to the Objects.
- (d) The organisation or organisations selected for the purpose of clause 21 (c) will be determined by a Special Resolution or if it not practicable to obtain such a Special Resolution, by a Judge of the Supreme Court of Western Australia who has jurisdiction in the matter.

21.2. Winding up of the Public Fund

In case of the winding up of the Public Fund, any surplus assets are to be transferred to another fund with similar objectives that is on the Register of Environmental Organisations.

22. Variation or Amendment of Constitution

This Constitution may be varied, amended or rescinded from time to time by Special Resolution in accordance with Division 2 of Part 3 of the Act.
